The PuLi Hotel and Spa Celebrates The launch of the New Garden Terrace

Don't feel trapped by the city during this glorious season of Summer – unwind in an oasis of calm as The PuLi Hotel and Spa celebrates the launch of the open-air Garden Terrace.

With the opening of the brand-new Garden Terrace, guests of the hotel can enjoy yet another dimension – enjoying a cool drink with friend whilst soaking in the serenity. Let us transport you to a place far from the hustle and bustle of the city where you can find your center of peace and calm. Overlooking the lush Jing'An Park, this is a spot unlike any other in Shanghai, full of greenery and freshness.

The Garden Terrace is the place to unwind, a 135-square meter space that can comfortably fit about 55 people. Plush sofas and comfy chairs seat a further 15 in sheltered comfort to enjoy the live musical performances we have in store. Chef Clouston has once more tailored a special menu for this outdoor oasis to match the extensive list of still wines and fine Champagne by the glass. Feeling a bit more adventurous? Sip on one for our specially-tailored cocktails for a cacophony of flavors on the taste buds and tuck into a spread of light-sized bites including a selection of imported cheeses, cold poached prawns, beef pies or chilled liver parfait. The Terrace will also be the ultimate location for upcoming events such as BBQs, open-air cinema, afternoon lawn sports as well as regular after-work drinks get-togethers.

By day, the Garden Terrace is the ideal spot for soaking in the colors of the scenic surrounds for a spot of lunch or afternoon tea. Once night falls, the place transforms into a mesmerizing nook for that romantic tete-a-tete.

A breath of fresh air in busy Shanghai, the Garden Terrace brings the resort to the city – a place to sojourn with gastronomical delights and devilish concoctions.

Our critically acclaimed Jing'An Restaurant on the second floor of the hotel was opened in 2009 and, since then, the 120-seater epicurean cathedral has impressed diners with chef Dane Clouston's passion for food in creating simple, sophisticated dishes that best reflect the seasons. Now, two years on, Jing'An continues to deliver an experience that returns you to sources of pleasure, serving new menus with each season. Our kitchen is constantly innovating and discovering new takes on old classics, giving you a true multi-dimensional, emotional and sensorial experience.
