CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEAR CELEBRATIONS AT THE PULI

Shanghai, December 2009 – The PuLi Hotel and Spa (The PuLi), Shanghai's first luxury urban resort enters its first festive season as it sets the scene for a year-end resort holiday right in the middle of the Shanghai metropolis from Christmas through New Year 2010.

The PuLi has seamlessly extended its simple design style into her first Christmas with a simple 15-metre tall real Christmas tree. Similar to the accents of Chinese traditions highlighted in its handcrafted design throughout the hotel to bring warm relaxed comfort to a guest, one can enjoy a traditional Christmas through simple guest offerings such as freshly roasted chestnuts on the Long Bar terrace, Glühwein, Eggnog or a specially concocted Winter Warmer.

The PuLi has tailor-made Christmas and New Year packages and Jing'An Restaurant has infused traditions in its menus for both the 24th and the 25th of December. Chef Dane Clouston has also created a gourmet menu for the last day of the year on the 31st of December and a New Year's Day menu on the 1st of January 2010 that reflects classic hangover recovery favourites. The 'Winter As You Wish' Anantara Spa package also offers that ultimate year-end pampering for one to arrive in 2010 revived and ready for the new year.

About The PuLi Hotel and Spa

The PuLi Hotel and Spa is Shanghai's first luxury urban resort. Firmly incorporated into the hotel's dedication to delivering handcrafted luxury service, guest experiences mark a departure from the expected generic style of luxury usually associated with conventional collections of foremost hotels. Imbued with contemporary elements and accents of traditional Asian charm, the result is a distinctively unique, new spatial and guest experience in this oasis within the metropolis. The PuLi Hotel and Spa is managed by Urban Resort Concepts and is a member of The Leading Hotels of the World.
