JING'AN - SUNDAY BRUNCH BY JINGAN PARK

Shanghai, July 2010 - Jing'An Restaurant launches its Sunday Brunch in July, which promises to be an experience for the palette and a fun beginning to your work week with family or friends. As the most indulgent meal of the week, the Jing'An Sunday Brunch is perfect for the celebration of a special occasion, as a get-together with family and friends or simply the perfect excuse to have your champagne at noontime.

Sunday Brunch experience begins with two huge 'Shared Tables', comprising of a fresh seafood station, charcuterie selection with dressing, freshly baked breads and pastries, Jing'An roasted meats. Other items include imported cheeses, Jing'An pickled station with pickled eggs, cucumbers onions and marinated mushrooms, fresh salad selection, a variety of homemade condiments and fresh fruits in glass jars.

Diners have a choice for their hot dish of either a breakfast or lunch favourite in handcrafted Brunch styling. Sophisticated takes on breakfast favourites, like the Jumbo Blueberry Pancakes, Big Breakfast Cast Iron Pan and Pork pot sticker dumplings accompany Jing'An's 'Larger Tastes' lunch selections like the Mushroom and Duck Tortellini, and Baby Chicken with Parsley Puree.

For the sweet ending to your Sunday Brunch, diners may choose any of the four PuLi signature desserts.

Jing'An Sunday Brunch takes place between 11.30am and 2.30pm and is priced RMB398++ per person. Free flow of Moët & Chandon Brut at RMB198++ and Moët & Chandon Rose RMB298++ is available for bubbly lovers. Children under the age of four eat for free and children between age four to twelve dine at half-price. 2 hours free parking will be offered if required.
